TEXT 1

You don't have to be mentally ill

01 SANELINE is the national out of hours
02 telephone helpline providing information and support
03 for anyone affected by mental health problems,
04 including family and carers.

05 Mental health issues are far more common than 06 is generally thought. One in four people will 07 experience some kind of mental health problem in 08 the course of a year.

09 SANELINE receives thousands of calls every 10 year from people seeking advice and help for 11 themselves or someone close to them. The non-12 judgmental support and information it provides can 13 make all the difference.

14 People faced with mental health concerns can 15 find it difficult to get facts about symptoms and 16 treatments, the services that are available to them,
17 or even to find someone who is prepared to listen.
18 That's where we can help. Call 0845 767 8000 for 19 help at the end of the line.
